

Do You Ever Feel Like Daniel?

There are times that we may feel just like poor Daniel when he was thrown into the lion's den. However, just like Daniel, our faith will come to our rescue as well!

After all, "He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust." (Psalm 91:1-2)

Further God has said, "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; You are mine." (Isaiah 43:1) God has also stated: "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." (Isaiah 41:10) "Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor Me." (Psalm 50:15)

So, when you feel like Daniel, always "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight." (Prov. 3:5-6)

We Can't Save Ourselves

By David Riggs

"But we are all like an unclean thing, and all our righteousness's are like filthy rags; we all fade as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." (Isa. 64:6)

Let us suppose that a plane crashes into the water with three men aboard, and there is no boat, ship, or land within hundreds of miles. One of the men is able to swim only a few hundred feet. The second can manage to stay afloat an hour or two. The third is a world champion long-distance swimmer.

What is the fate of the three?

It does not matter if the third man is a great swimmer or not. He has the same fate as the other two. The first will drown in twenty minutes; The second will drown in an hour or two; the third man will drown in 15 hours or so.

All three need a savior, without one all three will drown.

So it is with all men.

Being a good moral person alone amounts to no more than filthy rags. We are all sinners, and without a Savior we are all doomed to destruction.
