

Singing and Making Melody in Your Heart

Why do we sing? Is our singing acceptable to God? We need to ask ourselves these questions every time we come together to worship God. So why do we sing.? We sing to teach and admonish one another (Col. 3:16-17). We also sing to edify and encourage one another. We sing to worship and praise the one true God.

That brings us the question: How do we sing? We need to believe what we are singing and to sing it from our hearts (Eph 5:19). In Colossians 3:19 we are told to sing “with grace in our hearts, to the Lord.” The New American Standard Bible says to sing “with thankfulness in our hearts to God.” Thus when we are worshipping God in song, we need to sing from hearts with grace, and thankfulness, and reverence, giving our best to God.

Finally, is our singing acceptable to go to God? Throughout the Bible from the beginning of time, God has required the very best of mankind. Are we offering the very best we have, or are we offering a half-hearted worship to God? I pray that our worship is pleasing to God and that it always will be.
